SANTA REPORT

Dangarfield sale to $12,000 top price

SUMMARY

75 bulls av $5187, top $12,000
100pc clearance

By PETER SCOTT

IN a solid start to the Big Red Santa Week sales, Taroom breeders Ben and Robert Adams and families of Dangarfield Stud notched up a pleasing result at their annual sale on Monday, with a total clearance and a top of $12,000.

The 20th anniversary Dangarfield Santa Gertrudis bull sale, held on property at Kingswood, Taroom, featured 75 performance recorded bulls, and once again the buying panel was dominated by repeat purchasers with the majority of the bulls going to commercial operations.

In a sale breakdown, 52 classified bulls and 23 herd bulls were sold.

A 24-month-old polled bull, Dangarfield Quatro, by Dangarfield Lieutenant and out of Dangarfield 1587, achieved the top price of the sale when he was purchased by Shaun and Jo McGuigan of Cree Pastoral Company at Thangool for $12,000.

Jed, Shaun and Jo McGuigan, Cree Pastoral Company Thangool, pictured with Ben Adams, Dangarfield Stud, Taroom, were the successful purchasers of the $12,000 Dangarfield Quatro.

Perrett and Co, Kabunga West, Wandoan, acquired the second highest priced bull with the purchase of Dangarfield Quilberry for $9500.

Mrs Perrett was also successful in buying another three classified bulls for an overall average of $8875.

Harry Perrett, Cattle Downs Pastoral Company, also purchased a very good line of S bulls, putting together a team of four for an average of $6250.

Wayne Knudsen, Kilbeggan, Chinchilla, was another volume and repeat buyer with a total of eight classified bulls for an average price of $4759.

In the herd bull section of the catalogue, Mr Knudsen was again the volume buyer, and also bought the top-priced herd bull with the purchase of Dangarfield B-7074 for $6000. Mr Knudsen finished the sale with five herd bulls for an average price of $4300.

The second highest price for herd bulls was achieved twice in quick succession with $5500 paid for Dangarfield B-7073, purchased by Bell Brothers, Jeranga, Taroom, and Dangarfield Q104 selling to Gary Newton, Woodvale, also of Taroom.

Proston bulls top at $7000

SUMMARY

54 bulls av $3592, top $7000
86pc clearance

By REBECCA JENNINGS

SANTA Gertrudis bulls sold to $7000 on two occasions at the annual Brisbane Valley Santa sale at Toogoolawah last Wednesday.

For the second year Proston-based breeders Chris and Elise Fox topped the sale, with two bulls from their Cooinda stud reaching the top price.

Lot 4, Cooinda Country, was the first to make the top money, with the 25-month-old, 816kg son of Hayleigh 26 selling to Robert Lord. The bull recorded an EMA of 124sq cm, scrotal circumference of 42cm, and fat scans of 9mm on the rump and 6mm on the rib.

The Dunlop family, Dunlop Santa Stud, Proston, who also sold on the day, took the other $7000 bull in lot 7, another son of Hayleigh 26. The 24-month-old Cooinda Culpit weighed 784kg, with an EMA of 119sq cm, scrotal circumference of 43cm, and scans of 13mm of rump fat and 8mm on the rib.

The second-top price at $6000 was paid for lot 34, from the Beutel family's Warrilee stud at Bunburra. The 24-month-old Gylanda Zurich son was bought by fellow vendor Rod Wilson, Hayleigh Farms, Dallarnil.

Volume buyers included Cam Russell, Swan Hill Cattle Co, who made the trip to the sale for the first time, and selected six bulls to a top of $4000 and an average of $3000 for Consuelo Station at Rolleston.

Rodney Cahill, Carinya Hills, Lamington via Beaudesert, selected four bulls for a $3875 average

In a vendor breakdown, Warrilee Stud sold six classified bulls to $6000 for a $3583 average, and five herd bulls to $5000 and a $3400 average. The Dunlop Stud sold five classified bulls to $4000

(three times) for a $3800 average, and eight herd bulls to $5500 for a $3812 average. Cooinda sold 11 classified bulls to $7000 (twice) to set a $3727 average, and seven herd bulls to $4500 for a $3571 average. Hayleigh sold five herd bulls at $2500/head; Merrarie sold one herd bull for $3000; and Tyndale set a $4400 average for five bulls with four reaching $4500, while one herd bull made $2500.
